YOUNG GLOBAL LEADERS SUMMIT

“They’ve told me I could invest in anything I wanted, so I’ve invested in People.” Sheikh Saud Bin Saqr Al Qasimi, Ruler of Ras Al Khaimah

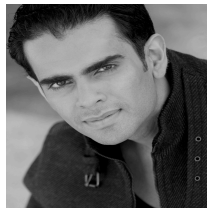

ABOUT

Under the Patronage of Sheikh Saud Bin Saqr Al Qasimi, Ruler of Ras Al Khaimah in the United Arab Emirates, we are organizing this coming 27th of September 2017 the Young Global Leaders Summit. The Young Global Leaders Summit is a forum of the most respected Young Global Leaders from around the world. This debate will discuss current affairs and future challenges our world is facing on issues to do with economic growth, social development, empowerment of the youth and women, demographic change, sustainability, and CSR in the private sector. Young Global Leaders from government, business, media and international organizations will meet to respond to the global challenges that require fresh ideas and innovative thinkers. Meet the young leaders who are helping the world face its uncertain future. The aim is for the participants to jointly develop solutions to the problems resulting from the societal changes they examine. After all, these Young Leaders will be the ones who will shape tomorrow’s future.
