Kelly Cyndrowski

Creative Director and Co-Owner
Salon Ink

Although Kelly has travelled the world, being born and bred in Brisbane, Kelly still calls Australia home. Starting her career at a young age, Kelly has adopted a versatile and unique creative style that sets her apart, winning many awards and accolades along the way. Moving overseas has given her the various opportunities in the industry, including working for a renowned international colour company, becoming the training expert for the Gulf Region. When Kelly isn't in the salon you may find her in the garden sporting a green thumb.

Sharon Anderson

Salon Ink

Sharon started her career in Australia where through hard work and dedication, she worked her way up to management roles in the business she loves. Her dynamic and edgy styling has won her many accolades and awards, eventually taking her to the UK to further enhance her styling and colouring knowledge on an international level. After achieving her goals in the UK, Sharon brought her sought after skills to the Middle East working as a trainer and educator for a leading international colour company. When Sharon isn't on the salon floor she is taking the time to plan her next exotic holiday destination.
