

ZAINUB BATA

Zainub is a Harvard trained negotiator and a CEDR (Center for Effective Dispute Resolution - UK) Accredited Mediator, trainer and master trainer with a background in Law (LL.B) and Business (MBA). She is also trained in interpersonal and transformative mediation and circle facilitation (Canada) through St. Stephen's Community House. As an appointed mediator for the Ministry of the Attorney General (Ontario, Canada) and has been in the field on a global scale with extensive experience in both commercial and personal meditations and negotiations. She also coaches and trains groups, teams and organisations in conflict resolution and negotiation.

A TEDx Speaker, Thrive Global and Huffington Post Contributor

Program on Negotiation (PON) - Harvard Law School

Mediator, Trainer/Master Trainer - Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR)

Post Graduate Diploma (PGDip) - Legal Practice, Leicester Institute Legal Practice

Master of Business Administration (MBA) - American International College

LL.B. Law - University of Leicester

Poetry
Dance
Yoga

Honesty
Authenticity
Openness

DXB
LDN
NYC