

Mai Hamed

Mai Hamed is a business motivational speaker, consultant on exponential organizations and accelerated change in the 21st Century. She embraces success in this challenging workplace where women leaders are rare to flourish and rise. Mai leads by example and drives individuals to take control of their life through utilizing the best of people around and their own abilities and skills. She enjoys structure and actions with plan having her focused target always at the core of everything she does. She teaches people on the use of new-age business frameworks to help bring their goals and aspirations to life. She has held senior leadership roles in the UAE FMCG sector and managed teams across borders.

Her topics of focus are:

Industries - FMCG | RETAIL | FOOD AND BEVERAGE

Frameworks - MTP (the How) | ExO Canvas

Skills - Leadership | Train the trainer | Negotiation | Managing Finances

She believes in purpose and the inner force to achieve one's dreams. Her goal is to help others see their true potential despite obstacles that may hinder their way.

