

About Mucha Hazel Nyandoro, CEO/Chief of Tribe

Mucha, is a dynamic, performance driven professional with solid experience across several sectors and business disciplines. She has worked in leadership positions for Tier One Global Financial Institutions in Corporate and Investment Banking, in Legal Services, Retail, Management Consulting and enterprise. She possesses impressive geographical experience having held global and regional roles spanning Europe, Middle East, and Africa. She is entrepreneurial at heart and is motivated by winning!

As a keen communicator, Mucha drives initiatives and causes focused on personal, organisational, and societal upliftment. She has become a sought-after speaker, moderator, commentator, facilitator and mentor, utilising her Professional Tribes platform to spread her positivity and insights to audiences of many thousands online. As a speaker, Mucha works with a global client base covering topics and range of industry events. She is, for example, a moderator high profile events such the Global Business Forum Africa (Dubai Chamber), the and CEO Roundtable (African Union Commission). She works with various sub-Saharan African Government entities, NGOs and Multinational Corporations.

Mucha is recognised for her work developing female business leaders, entrepreneurs, and young multi-sectoral professionals. As such, Mucha has mentored members of The Mentorship Boardroom, Dubai Business Women Council, Reach and Professional Tribes.

She is acknowledged as an inspirational figure by various global entities, with her profile featured in publications including Balance for Better by UN Women, in Executive Women Middle East, Travel Essence Magazine, and on other mass media platforms such as national radio, and several other global platforms on Trade and Investment.

Key Experience

Manelith Global

J.P Morgan Chase

HSBC

John Lewis Partnership